Heggblom, shall act as the executor of this my Last Will and Testament.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I, JOHN EMIL FORSGREN, of the City of Detroit, State of Michigan, on this 18th day of June, A. D., 1952, have declared this to be my Last Will and Testament, and have hereunto set my hand, in the presence of witnesses, below subscribed, who have witnessed the same in my presence.

We, the undersigned, certify that John Emil Forsgren, on this 18th day of June, A. LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

JOHN EMIL FORSGREN

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS that I, John Emil Forsgren of 491 West Forest Avenue, Detroit, Michigan, being of lawful age, and sound and disposing mind and memory, do make publish and declare this my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all other Wills and Testaments made by me.

FIRST: I hereby nominate my sister-in-law, Florence Forsgren, as executrix of this my Last Will and Testament and authorize her at such times and places as may be deemed proper, to sell and make proper conveyance of such of my personal property as may be necessary to carry this will into effect.

SECOND: I hereby direct my executrix, hereinbefore named, to pay J.E.F. out of my estate, as soon as possible after my decease, all debts and funeral and testamentary expenses.

THIRD: Should it be necessary to retain an attorney in order to properly carry this Will into effect, I hereby direct my executrix to retain U.S.A. Heggblom of Detroit, Michigan, for that purpose.

It is also suggested that if it is inconvenient for my sister-in-law to act as executrix of this Last Will and Testament that she should file a declination and that under such circumstances the said U.S.A. Heggblom of Detroit, Michigan, could be appointed in her place and stead.

FOURTH: In recognition of my love and affection for my only brother, Fred E. Forsgren, I hereby give, devise and bequeath unto him the said Fred E. Forsgren, the residue of my entire estate and effects, which at this writing includes primarily stocks and bonds, savings account and automobile, but as of the date of my death it is intended to include all

Fall kills teen as paint fumes overcome him

By JIM CHAPMAN
Staff Writer

CORUNNA — A 15-year-old DeKalb County youth died early Saturday when he apparently fell into a tank of paint stripper after succumbing to fumes, his father said.

Aaron Michael Stout, 15, and Richie Carper were painting model cars for a 4-H project in an enclosed room of a barn at the Stouts' residence on U.S. 6, about a mile west of Corunna in northwest DeKalb County.

"They kept the doors closed, probably to keep the mosquitoes out," said Aaron's father, Doug Stout.

The boys spilled paint on the carpet and used lacquer thinner to try to clean the mess, Doug Stout said.

The two boys later went downstairs in the barn to clean their air brushes in a 50-gallon tank that had about three gallons of paint stripper in the bottom. Doug Stout said he occasionally uses the chemical in his copper polishing business.

The barn had ventilation that Aaron knew how to use, his father said.

"I think the combination of the enclosed room upstairs made them forgetful to use ventilation that was available," he said.

While cleaning their equipment, Aaron Stout's friend almost passed out from the fumes and got out of the barn in time, Doug Stout said.

But Aaron Stout, who was leaning over the tank, succumbed to the fumes and fell into the tank, his father said.

Richie Carper ran to tell his friend's parents what happened. But by the time they reached their son it was too late, Doug Stout said.

Attempts by the Corunna Fire Department and DeKalb County EMS to revive the youth were unsuccessful.

DeKalb County Coroner William Hathaway could not be reached for comment. The Dekalb County Sheriff's Department had no information about the incident.

Pizza delivery man robbed: A 33-year-old delivery man for Jim K's Pizza, 3903 S. Anthony Blvd., was robbed about 11:30 p.m. Friday in the 2700 block of Holton Avenue. The victim said he believes the robber got inside his car while making a delivery. The car was unlocked, he said. The victim said when he stopped at a stop sign, someone hit him in the back of a head with a flashlight. The robber took $60 and ran off, police said. The victim suffered a mild concussion and was treated at Parkview Memorial Hospital.

Restaurant robbed: Two men robbed Kentucky Fried Chicken, 2230 Paulding Road, about 10:30 p.m. Friday. Employees told police the men entered through a back door, armed with a sharp object. The men took an undetermined amount of cash and forced the employees into a walk-in cooler.

Officers, dogs graduate: Five area police officers and their police dogs recently graduated from Allen County's K-9 training program. Randy Morrison of the Allen County Police Department, Mark Germann of the Mercer County Sheriff's Department, Stanley Nihart of the Bryan, Ohio, Police Department, Thomas M. Thomas of the Pulaski Police Department and Scott Oldham of the Bloomington Police Department were honored during a ceremony Friday in Fort Wayne.

Homeless vets have feast: Dozens of homeless veterans feasted on hamburgers and hot dogs at an Indianapolis picnic in their honor Saturday, then sought help in dealing with the problems that have kept them on the street. About 90 veterans signed up for aid that ranged from drug abuse counseling to information on spiritual and medical opportunities, veterans programs, and jobs, organizers said. The picnic, sponsored by Lighthouse Ministries, Inc. and the Indiana chapter of Far From Home with the aid of the American Legion's 11th District, was aimed at helping homeless vets feel more comfortable about seeking help, officials said.

Ohio

Budget agreement reached: A Senate-House conference committee reached an agreement Saturday on a record, $30.9 billion budget that members said is balanced and contains no new major taxes. Conferees said they will formally approve the package on Monday, clearing the way for floor votes in both houses before a July 1 fiscal deadline. The spending bill reflects an increase from $27 billion in the current two-year period.

Crash kills teen: Thad Reed, 16, of Venedocia, was pronounced dead at the scene of a one-car accident in Van Wert County shortly after midnight Saturday. He was a passenger in a car driven by Jared C. Huse, 16, of rural Van Wert. Huse was southbound on Van Wert-Greenville Road when he drove off the road. The Ohio Highway Patrol said Huse's car struck a utility pole and overturned several times. Reed was not wearing a seat belt and was partially thrown from the vehicle. Huse and another passenger, Jason A. Davis, 17, of Middle Point, suffered minor injuries. Charges are pending against Huse, who had been drinking before the accident, police said.

Fire too fresh in minds as victims hunt new homes

By PAT RANDLE
Staff Writer

SOUTH WHITLEY — Chris and Dana Lemke didn't celebrate their youngest daughter's birthday.

While 2-year-old Erika spent the last two weeks with her grandmother in Alabama, her parents looked for a new home after being burned out of Hicks Tavern Apartments.

Friday, the state fire marshal's office ruled that the June 10 blaze — which killed one resident and displaced 35 — was arson.

Those who lost their homes have found it hard to find new ones — and hard to live with the memories.

In the wake of the blaze, the Lemkes had a new set of priorities as they hunted for a home.

"I'll never live on a second floor again," said Dana Lemke, who awakened in the middle of the night to shouts of "Fire!"

She found her three young children and escaped through the smoke.

They have, however, found a new home in Columbia City.

"We checked the wiring" of their new place, she said. "We have three doors as escape routes.

"I look for those things now."

The Lemkes have spent the past week fixing their new apartment up so Virginia, 5, and Erika, 2, could come home from grandma's.

They rearranged furnishings so their children will sleep right next door to their bedroom, Dana Lemke said. "The kids were two rooms away from us before."

When she called around trying to find a place in the Columbia City area, she found few places for rent to families.

The Lemkes finally heard about the spacious first-floor apartment through a friend

How to help

An ice-cream social to raise funds to help the victims of the Hicks Tavern Apartments fire will be conducted from 4 to 7 p.m. today at St. John's Lutheran Church, 2465 W. Keiser Road, Columbia City. The Lutheran Brotherhood Land of Lakes will donate $1 for each $2 contributed, up to $1,000. Patrons are asked to make freewill offerings, church officials said. Ice cream, cake, pie, sandwiches and beverages will be available.

Becki and Keith Dilley have about 9,000 diapers in the basement of their new home in Geneva. The diapers were donated under the sponsorship of a radio station after Becki Dilley gave birth to sextuplets in an Indianapolis hospital.

Plans for sextuplets' homecoming fill hands, home of Geneva couple

GENEVA — The upstairs baby room is lined with cribs — five set up along the walls and the parts of one yet to be assembled.

That's the state of affairs for Keith and Becki Dilley, who have done much of the preparations for their sextuplets to come home, but still have more to do.

Sitting in their two-story brick home in Geneva, the Dilleys talked about plans for their children.

One or two of the babies are expected to leave the hospital in a couple of weeks, Becki Dilley said. The rest should come in the following month, they said.

The four boys and two girls, born last month at The Women's Hospital in Indianapolis, weigh between 3 and 3½ pounds, Becki Dilley said. After they reach 4½ pounds, can drink from bottles and have steady temperatures, they will be brought home.

Keith Dilley said it has become much easier to tell them apart. The children are developing their own characters.

Becki Dilley said premature babies frequently will stop breathing at night. The couple plan to install monitoring equipment that will alert the Dilleys if one of the babies doesn't breathe for

Stalemate continues over budget

From staff and wire reports

Education financing was among issues discussed Saturday by the four Indiana lawmakers attempting to negotiate a state budget agreement. But no progress was reported on the most pressing issue dividing Democrats and Republicans — a cigarette tax increase.

Lawmakers must pass a budget, or a stopgap measure to continue spending at current levels, by midnight Wednesday or much of state government would shut down. The new fiscal year begins Thursday.

Fort Wayne International Airport was among several Indiana airports Gov. Evan Bayh visited Saturday to carry his message to TV cameras and reporters.

Bayh, a Democrat, called the Republican-controlled Senate's budget package irresponsible.

"I will do everything in my power to make sure this ridiculous budget does not pass — even if I am forced to veto it," Bayh said. "The budget is dramatically out of balance and we have to have a balanced budget."

Bayh said he was in budget meetings Saturday morning and would be in meetings again after his news conferences.

"I must lay the foundation for something we can and should and must avoid before Wednesday," Bayh said.'

Bayh and other Democrats initially pushed for an 18-cent increase in cigarette taxes, but have come down to 12 cents and appear willing to settle for less.

Republicans oppose any tax increase.

House Ways and Means Chairman B. Patrick Bauer, D-South Bend, said conferees met for three hours Saturday.

Attempts to reach Senate conferees were unsuccessful Saturday, but one of them, Sen. Patricia Miller, R-Indianapolis, gave no indication Friday that Republicans were willing to budge.

Bauer said issues discussed Saturday included the school funding formula. The two sides are close on increases for public schools, with Democrats coming down from 4 per-cent to 3.5 percent in each of the next two years, and Republicans coming up from 3 percent to 3.3 percent.

Levity, tension mesh in session

By JOHN KETZENBERGER
Staff Writer

INDIANAPOLIS — On June 9, Gov. Evan Bayh called Indiana legislators back to Indianapolis to approve a two-year state budget. The only act Indiana's constitution specifically required the legislature to do, lawmakers failed to pass a spending plan during the 60-day regular session.

Hoosiers have spent $210,000 to finance the special session — now 16 days long — and the state still doesn't have a budget.

It's clear that this is a session historians will dissect and study.

It's not unlike the Civil War times of Gov. Oliver P. Morton, who managed to bypass the legislature and personally get more than $1 million in financial backing to finance state government.

And it's not unlike the 1963 special session that took 40 overtime days to enact the state's sales tax.

Aside from the traditional political struggles and wrangling over whether to increase cigarette taxes, a number of noteworthy events have transpired within the limestone and marble Statehouse.

TAX TACT:

Among the 42 amendments to the Senate budget proposal was a notion that raised the hackles of many around the Statehouse who graduated from Indiana colleges. Sen. Morris Doll, D-Vincennes, proposed a 0.2 percent surtax on the income of anyone with a degree from a state university.

It was meant to make a point

Residents will feel pinch as new tax kicks in

By JULIE ZASADNY
Staff Writer

Allen County residents will soon see their paychecks shrink a few dollars as the purses of local governments grow.

The county's newest income tax, the County Economic Development Income Tax, debuts Thursday. It will take 0.2 percent of a worker's adjusted gross income.

On the same day, the County Option Income Tax increases from 0.4 percent to 0.5 percent. The combination will take a total of 0.7 percent out of the paychecks of those who live and work in Allen County, compared with 0.4 percent now.

A worker with an adjusted gross income of $25,000 will see his paycheck decrease by the equivalent of about two to three cans of soda pop a week.

Workers' county income tax payments will increase from $100 to $175 a year.

Deputy Controller Kathy Friend said people will notice the smaller amount of money in the first check they receive after Thursday.

The money from COIT is shared between local governments, townships and special taxing districts such as the Allen County Public Library and the Public Transportation Corp.

CEDIT will be split among governments only — Allen County, Fort Wayne, New Haven, Woodburn, Grabill, Huntertown and Monroeville. Allen County should receive about $3.38 million, and Fort Wayne expects to collect $5.1 million.

Fort Wayne will use the money to finance $20.5 million in infrastructure work, including $9 million to resurface the city's most-traveled streets. Neighborhoods will receive $2.45 million for roadwork, lights, curbs and sidewalks.

Allen County officials will use their share to repave or rebuild more than 50 miles of roads.

People who work in Allen County but live outside the county will be charged the full CEDIT rate, but a lower COIT rate.

Friend said state law requires nonresidents be charged one-fourth of the COIT rate.

So the total county income tax charge on nonresidents will be 0.325 percent, she said.

An exception is made for those who live in a county that already has CEDIT or COIT. If someone works in Allen County, but lives in a county that already levies such a tax, they pay only in the county in which they live, not in Allen County.

New county income tax rates

Adjusted gross income	What you pay now*	What you will pay starting Thursday
$20,000	$80	$140
$30,000	$120	$210
$40,000	$160	$280
$50,000	$200	$350
$60,000	$240	$420

FILL IN THE NAME: Rep. Rick Hodges typically sends typewritten thoughts to newspapers across his district, in his "Long Line from Columbus" column. Hodges, a Republican who represents the Ohio House 82nd District — which includes Defiance and Williams counties — uses the column to express his feelings on recent legislative actions, or the political scene in Columbus. And the impression is usually that he's doing the writing. A more recent installment, however, offered this concluding sentence: "IF APPLICABLE: I have co-sponsored this legislation which is now being heard in the House Judiciary and Criminal Justice Committee." The canned response probably was written by House press staff for use by several legislators. A note: In Hodges' case it was applicable — he was one of about 60 representatives co-sponsoring House Bill 396, aimed at keeping "sexual predators" off the streets.

JUST DUCKY: Wabash will go quackers July 25 as the Wabash Area Chamber of Commerce launches the community's first-ever Ducky Run. The plastic ducks will jump off the Huntington Street Bridge and will be netted at the public access site east of the Carroll Street Bridge. Entrants can win two economy class airline tickets to anywhere in the continental United States, cash and other prizes. Tickets to buy "racing" ducks are available at the Chamber office and a bevy of area businesses for $3 each or two for $5.

ROAD CLOSED, AIRPORT OPEN: Tri-State Steuben County Airport officials are conducting their second annual fly-in breakfast today. Even though U.S. 20 — which runs in front of the aiport — is closed for reconstruction, officials at the rural Angola facility aren't worrying because the airport is still accessible from County Roads 150 South and 450 West and Hogback Lake and Golden Lake roads. "The road's closed. Not us," said Jennifer Sonner, a flight instructor. Last year, 90 planes flew in for the event, and more are expected this year. The fly-in runs from 6 a.m. to noon. Breakfast costs $3, and proceeds benefit the Steuben County chapter of the American Red Cross.

BARBERING BARGAIN: If Wolcottville's Shear Magic is any indication, President Clinton might want to stay with a cheaper haircut. After the brouhaha over Clinton's $200 clip by a New York hair stylist, Shear Magic took its trim at the situation. It erected a sign: "President Clinton's haircut. $200 value for $9." Patrons are opting for the sale price. "We've had quite a few comments about that sign," Janie Brill said last week. "But nobody wants a $200 haircut." Apparently, $9 is plenty.

NEW HAVEN BUREAU STAFFED: Jim Chapman, The Journal-Gazette's police reporter the past two years, is rejoining the newspaper's bureau team as the New Haven bureau reporter. Chapman, a Fort Wayne native, was the Kendallville reporter before assuming the police beat. The New Haven bureau covers eastern Allen County in addition to Van Wert and Mercer counties in Ohio. Chapman succeeds Julie Zasadny, who now covers Fort Wayne city government for The Journal-Gazette. Chapman will split his time between the bureau and police beat until a new police reporter is named. He can be reached in the New Haven bureau by calling (219) 493-4807.

Swiatlo Book Is Ballooned Into Poland

By Tribune's Special Service.

NEW YORK CITY—Some of the most closely guarded secrets of the Communist regime in Poland began dropping into Poland Sunday from giant plastic balloons launched by the Free Europe Press from sites in West Germany.

These were the first of over a million copies of a 40-page book, containing the revelations of Lt. Col. Jozef Swiatlo, former high official of the Polish Security Ministry. It also was the first time balloons have been used in a major campaign to send printed material to Red-dominated Poland.

Swiatlo's broadcasts of this material to Poland over Radio Free Europe are generally credited with having caused the recent removal of Security Minister Stanislaw Radkiewicz and the subsequent dissolution of the entire ministry.

Lists Political Rivalries.

The 30,000-word tract lists the political rivalries which exists among the ruling clique as well as the substance of secret dossiers which various Communist officials kept on one another. Swiatlo defected to the West in December, 1953, bringing with him an extraordinary story of corruption and immorality in the hierarchy of the Polish Communist regime.

The Swiatlo story gives precise information on a fact already well known both in Poland and throughout the world—that Poland is not a free nation and that thousands of threads that tie the puppet regime all lead to the Kremlin. Swiatlo tells of the organized enslavement of Poland in his book and and left the shares of stock intact so that, on final settlement they were distributed to you as Administratrix of your husband's estate, and on final settlement of your husband's estate they were turned over to you.

Thus, the individual shares were never appraised in your husband's estate, and it does create quite a complication when it comes to trying to ascertain whether there would be a profit or a loss for Federal Income Tax purposes, when you come to sell, as an individual, any of the shares of stock received in this manner.

By reference to the Inventory in the John Emil Forsgren Estate, we find that the shares of stock in question constituted the sole assets of that Estate and they were appraised as follows:

200 shares Graham-Paige Corporation @ 2.00	$ 400.00
200 shares Hurd Lock & Manufacturing Company @ 4.625	925.00
1500 shares Masco Screw Products Company @ 3.00	4500.00
Total	$5825.00

Ordinarily, as the cost of shares of stock to a distributee is considered to be the value of the shares at the date of the decedent's death, these shares would be shown at a cost to you of $5825.00. However, since they were subject to sale to pay the debts of John Forsgren, the effect is the same as though the shares at $5825.00 would be distributed subject to a lien in an amount equal to the debts of that estate. Inasmuch as you paid the sum of $1299.15 to free these shares, the amount advanced by you would seem to be an additional cost to you of obtaining these shares, so that it seems to us that for income tax purposes the total cost of these shares of stock to you would be $5825.00 plus the $1299.15 which you paid to obtain the release or a total of $7124.15, and in determining whether, when you sell them, there is profit or a loss, it is our opinion that that question would be determined by measuring the price which you obtained for them against the total cost as above shown.

What we have said would contemplate a sale of all of the shares of stock that you received, but it may be that you will not sell all of these shares of stock at one time, and a further complication then arises as to what the cost of any one of the several issues that you may sell would be. In such an event it seems to us that it would be necessary for you to apportion the $1299.15 ratably among the several issues of stock in accordance with their respective values, in which event the cost of the shares

Dear Mrs. Forsgren:

In accordance with our telephone conversation and your request for copies of certain of the papers filed in your husband's estate, we are pleased to enclose you copies of the following papers, namely:

Final Report of Administratrix;

Final Decree of Distribution;

Report of Distribution; and Federal Estate Tax Return.

We trust that these will be of assistance to you in whatever matters you may wish to consider.

With regard to the cost of the shares of stock which you received, as set forth in the Report of Distribution, I find that these shares were not returned as such in the Inventory of your husband's estate, and consequently, were not returned for inheritance tax or Federal Estate Tax at any fixed valuation for each of the issues of stock. The reason for this was that the shares were not in your husband's estate at the time of his death. They were then in his brother's estate, John E. Forsgren, which was then being administered in the court here, as a result of which we returned for taxation, as an asset of your husband's estate, the estimated value of the assets that were expected to be received by your husband's estate from his brother's estate. The value of this interest was set in your husband's estate at $4600.85.

However, when it came time to finally settle the John Forsgren estate, it was found that in order to pay off the debts of that Estate, so that the shares of stock could be transferred without sale, you personally advanced to the administrator of the John Forsgren Estate the sum of $1299.15 in cash. This amount was sufficient to pay all of the debts of the John Forsgren Estate

He Won't Put Hands Up for Anyone—Shot by Bandit

Fred Forsgren, 36, of 2409 N. Springfield av., a foreman for the Illinois Tool Company, was shot and seriously wounded in the chest and left arm by one of two robbers, who fired a blast from a shotgun when he refused to hold up his hands as he sat in his automobile with Miss Edna Brunhofer, 30, in front of her home at 2527 N. Drake av., early today.

The robbers, driving up in an automobile, alighted and approached. They said:

"This is a stickup. Get out and hold up your hands."

Forsgren replied:

"I won't put up my hands for any one."

The shotgun blast followed and the bandits fled. At the Belmont Hospital it was said Forsgren's condition is serious.

Fred Forsgren and Miss Edna Brunhofer, who was with him when he was shot.

REFUSES TO PUT UP HANDS; SHOT DOWN BY BANDIT

The flat refusal of Fred Forsgren, 26 years old, 2409 North Springfield avenue, a foreman, to put up his hands at the commands of two bandits may cost him his life. Forsgren was sitting in his parked car with Miss Edna Brunhofer, 26 years old, in front of her home at 2527 North Drake avenue this morning when the robbers drove up beside them in another machine. Pointing guns at him, the hoodlums ordered him to raise his hands.

"I won't put up my hands for anybody," retorted Forsgren, and he kept his hands down. The bandits didn't ask a second time. One of them fired pointblank at Forsgren. The bullet passed through Forsgren's left arm and lodged in his chest. He was taken to the Belmont hospital. Doctors pronounced his condition as serious. The bandits got away.

KIDNAPED NEAR DINERS

Shotgun bandits early today seriously wounded Fred Forsgren, 36 years old, 2409 North Springfield avenue, as he sat in his automobile with Miss Edna Brunhofer, 30 years old, and her sister Helen in front of their home, 2527 North Drake avenue.

"I don't put up my hands for any one," Forsgren retorted when ordered to do so. One of the bandits fired, and then both fled in another automobile. Forsgren was taken to the Belmont hospital with wounds in chest and left arm.

"BLESSED ARE THEY THAT MOURN."

"BLESSED ARE THEY THAT MOURN"

There is a day of sunny rest
For every dark and troubled night:
And grief may bide, an evening guest,
But joy shall come with early light

And thou, who, o'er thy friend's low bier
Sheddest the bitter drops like rain,
Hope that a brighter, happier sphere,
Will give him to thy arms again.

Nor let the good man's trust depart,
Though life its common gifts deny,
Though with a pierced and broken heart,
And spurned of men, he goes to die.

For God has marked each sorrowing day
And numbered every secret tear,
And heaven's long age of bliss shall pay
For all his children suffer here.

but that on the other hand it will give you sufficint information to enable you to advise Mrs. Forsgren. If there is any further information you desire, please advise and we will be glad to forward it.

We are requesting Mrs. Forsgren to take this matter up with you as promptly as possible, as we would like to proceed with the estate so that we can have everything ready to file the final report before the end of the first year of administration; otherwise we may be charged a second year's premium on the official bond of the administratrix.

With best personal regards, we are,

Very truly yours,

PARRY AND BARNS

on the value of the gross estate of the decedent as finally determined for Federal Estate Tax purposes.

The gross estate in this case amounted to $87,795.64, of which the assets administered in the estate amounted to $10,084.16, and the other assets brought into the estate for Federal Tax purposes amounted to $77,711.48. Upon these figures the minimum fee according to the Allen County Bar rates would run around $2,835. We have proposed to make our fee a flat $2,500. We believe that this fee is reasonable for the amount of work and responsibility in this estate including that yet to be performed, and represents a reduction from the minimum fee schedule basis. We might add that the amount of time required, and estimated as to future services, at hourly rates would arrive at about the same figure.

As to further proceedure, we feel that there is no particular reason why the shares of stock in Graham Paige Corporation and in Hurd Lock and Manufacturing Company should be held. Apparently they can be sold on the Detroit Board of Trade at a present market price of around $2.00 for the Graham Paige Corporation and $5.00 for the Hurd Lock and Manufacturing Company, and it seems to us perhaps the wisest way to handle the matter would be to make sale of these at the market price and out of the sale price and the cash in bank to pay the attorney fees and the court costs. After that the balance of the assets could be liquidated or, upon proper showing by Mrs. Forsgren, could be turned over to her so that she could hereafter sell them or not as she chose.

Mrs. Forsgren has compared this fee with the fee charged in the John E. Forsgren Estate. In that estate, the total assets consisted of the shares of stock above referred to which were appraised at $5,825. The undertaker's expense had been paid by Mr. Fred Forsgren before his decease, and the remainder of the expense, except for a couple of small dividends received, was advanced by the Fred Forsgren Estate. Handling the estate was an exceedingly simple matter, and obviously the fee charged could not compare with that in the Fred Forsgren Estate. The fee charged by the executor was $150 and that by the attorneys, another $150. In our conferences with the executor regarding the affairs of the estate, we think we put in about as much time as the attorneys for that estate probably were required to put in on the entire administration.

We might add that we always desire to make our fees reasonable, and are always ready to discuss the same with any reasonable client, and, if we can be convinced that they are not fair, to adjust them. Mrs. Forsgren has cooperated fully in the administration of the estate with us and is not unreasonable in wishing to further consult with you about the above matters before closing the estate.

We trust that the foregoing letter is not unduly lengthy,

200 shares of Graham Paige Corporation
200 shares of Hurd Lock and Manufacturing Company
1500 shares of Masco Screw Products Company
Cash in bank - $1209.01

We are writing to you because Mrs. Forsgren desires to consult with you about the suggested procedure and the amount of the fee.

After discussing the matter with Mrs. Forsgren, we thought possibly the best way to enable her to obtain your advices in the matter, would be for us to write a letter setting forth the situation so that you may advise her accordingly, and also if you wish to do so, to discuss the matter further with us.

Services in the estate so far have included, briefly, original conferences regarding the nature and amount of assets owned by the decedent or in which he had an interest, which passed to the estate or to the widow by virtue of his death; opening the estate and qualifying the administratrix; inventorying and appraisal of the assets; adjusting accounts with your company; examination and approval of proceedings in the John E. Forsgren Estate and securing transfer of assets to Fred E. Forsgren Estate on completion of administration to avoid the expense of prior liquidation; proceedings in re Preliminary Federal Estate Tax return, the Indiana Inheritance Tax return and the Federal Estate Tax return; and the returns for decedent and the estate under the Indiana Gross Income Tax law and the Federal Income Tax law, and the many necessary conferences, correspondence, examinations of law, legal proceedings, etc., required in connection therewith, and some conferences regarding the assets outside of the estate as such.

Services hereafter to be performed will probably include the sale and transfer of shares of corporate stock, preparation of the claim of the widow for reimbursement for the amounts advanced in the payment of debts, preparing the final report and petition to set over the remaining assets in kind to Mrs. Forsgren to apply upon her claim, the final report, making distribution of the assets and filing a report of distribution and securing the final entry.

According to the bar rates which are in force in this county, the charges for attorney fees in an estate are not based upon a per diem or an hourly rate, but take into consideration the responsibility assumed by an attorney in handling an estate and the experience required in enabling him to handle the estate proceedings properly. A mimium fee is therefore established on the basis of a charge of 5 per cent of the gross value of all assets administered upon and 3 per cent of all other assets, these rates to be figured

Re: Fred E. Forsgren Estate

Dear Mr. Kent:

I think that we will shortly be in position to begin the steps necessary to conclude administration of Mr. Forsgren's Estate. Barring any further necessity for proceedings connected with the Federal Estate Tax and the Indiana Inheritance Tax, which we consider unlikely, we believe that we have reached the point where the only obligations remaining to be paid out of the estate assets are the court costs and the attorney fee. We understand that Mrs. Forsgren's parents, who hold the joint note of Mr. and Mrs. Forsgren, do not insist on payment of this note out of the estate, but will look to their daughter for payment, and the bank which holds the mortgage on the home property is content to look to the payment of the mortgage outside of the estate. The other indebtedness, medical and hospital bills, undertaker's services, funeral and burial expenses, obligation on promissory note and so forth, were in large part paid by Mrs. Forsgren out of her husband's bank accounts which were held in joint title or out of his United States Savings Bonds which were payable to her on death. Inasmuch as Mrs. Forsgren became owner of the bank accounts free of the estate, and also of the bonds, she is entitled to hold a claim against the estate for the debts of the estate paid off by her out of these amounts, and in addition, she is entitled to her widow's statutory allowance of $850.00.

Our suggestion to Mrs. Forsgren has been that she sell the 200 shares of Graham Paige Corporation and 200 shares of Hurd Lock and Manufacturing Company and out of the proceeds and the cash on hand, pay the court costs and the attorney fee, after which we can have the Court enter an order that all remaining assets be delivered to her in reimbursement of the amounts owing to her, thus leaving nothing for distribution to her or to her daughter as heirs.

The Court costs will amount to about $29.00 and the attorney fees in the estate to $2500.00.

The assets in the estate are:

Mr. Harold Smith

2501 N. Keeler Avenue

Dear Harold:

I am writing you about our recent examination of Mr. Fred E. Forsgren. We found that this man has severe chronic liver disease and gall stones, otherwise he is well. In addition to the routine examination, his liver and intestinal tract was completely examined. The situation is sufficiently critical so that it is of the first importance that he receive adequate treatment at once. I believe that there is a good possibility that the situation can be arrested and that he may make a satisfactory recovery. For the next month he can continue at work, although he must take it a little bit easy and will receive various medicines. However, if this is ineffective, it will be necessary for him to take two or three months away from work and go to bed. We will keep you informed of developments.

With best regards.

RBC/ms

Sincerely yours,

Dato 11/3-'92 Journal nr. /6000

Dear Carol Springer.

Thank you for your letter of 9/3-'92-
Here is what I have found of informations, concerning C.F.Tietgen.
Build by Harland & Wolff in Belfast in 1897.
8173 B.R.T., 469 eng. foot long, 5000 HP.
C.F.Tietgen was first bought by the Holland-America Line, where it was called "Rotterdam".
In 1906 the ship was bought by the Scandinavian-American Line, and called C.F.Tietgen.
It's first departure from Copenhagen was april.26.-1906.
In 1913 the C.F.Tietgen was sold to the Russian- East Asiatic Co.
Enclosed is a picture of some of the ship's, from that time.
I hope you can use these informations.

Sincerly.
L. Bouchara
